Outing highlights this month:

Tuesday 14th April

Grossmann & Brough House

In historic Church Street, Maitland's National Trust properties, Grossmann and Brough Houses are mirror-imaged Victorian townhouses built in 1870 by business partners Samuel Owens and Isaac Beckett. The two properties have had varied lives: Entcliffe, known for most of its life as Grossmann House, was a private residence for the Becketts and Maitland Girls High School until the mid-1960s, and now as a fully restored and furnished Victorian house museum.

Brough House was also a private residence for a number of years, a boarding house, a hostel for the schoolgirls, and the Maitland Art Gallery, and now has renewed life as an area for displays and exhibition

Friday 24th April

Newcastle Art Gallery - Newcastle Art Gallery began in 1957 in the War Memorial Cultural Centre in Newcastle's CBD following a donation of over 100 works of art by benefactor Roland Pope. The gallery moved next door to its current location in 1977 and was officially opened by Queen Elizabeth II. Today, the gallery presents a diverse program of over 300 public events and education programs annually, and over 30 events for members of the Newcastle Art Gallery Society.

I understand that when I book into an event that has an RSVP date, I am confirming my intention to attend and my agreement to pay the full advertised cost. I acknowledge that if I cancel for any reason after submitting my RSVP, I will still be charged the full cost.
